Land2Lab at Pigeon Lake

Project by Samson Community Wellness, The University of Alberta & Glinis Buffalo.

Words by Guide.

July 4-6, 2023

Pigeon Lake: Samson Community Wellness, the University of Alberta and Glinis Buffalo had their 3 day event out at Pigeon Lake and they started the day off with a water ceremony.

There were no pictures allowed of the event and Elder Bernice Stoney from Pigeon Lake explained to the people gathered about how she got the teachings for the ceremony from another lady. It is a female ceremony that has to be done by the ladies. Bernice explained that the first water ceremony was at Camp 1 in Pigeon Lake, Elk Island was second, the one today will be the third. The fourth will be done next year if you are interested in seeing a water ceremony. She also mentioned that Rattle Making classes are needed out at Pigeon Lake because rattles are used in the ceremony.

Bernice Stoney lifted the pipe for the ladies this day and Samson Councilor Holly Johnson assisted. There were about 15 ladies that participated in the ceremony right by the waters edge. The reason for the ceremony is to heal the water. Holly stated that this area used to have a traditional fishing station located here and that it for the future generations to come.

After that the testing and getting into groups started. There were snacks and coffee for the people attended. Dr. Helena Johnson from Samson and Dr. M. Arlos were also present.

Maskwacis Cree High School, Jonas Applegarth theatre: The Chief and Council Inauguration took place with a pipe ceremony before the event. After that a Grand Entry took place and then the signing ceremony took place.

There was the official signing, photography by Burt Crowfoot and live streams on both the Samson Cree Nation facebook and Youtube page. If you missed it go to these social media platforms and watch it there. The event was emotional for some and a lot of appreciation was made for the assistance to get to this point and former Councilors were honoured for their work for the nation. Samson Lawyer Eileen Sasakamoose and Wilton Littlechild formalized the signing ceremony for the leaders. Afterward, the Samson flag and Union Jack were danced out of the building. RCMP members Dall and Curtis assisted with the event and participated in the Grand Entry and dancing out of the flags. Janet Potts catered the event.

The following are Councilors: Ryan Lightning, Frank Buffalo, Darryl Montour, Kurt Buffalo, Elesha Buffalo, Brian Lightning, Louise Omeasoo, Vincent Saddleback, Cletis Louis, Izaiah Swampy-Omeasoo, Holly Johnson and Armand Swampy.

Willowview Building in Samson: A celebration for Pride Month took place with guest speakers Stephanie Harpe, Roxann Roan and Chevi Currie-Rabbit. Hosted by Samson Community Wellness and Maskwacis Health Services (MHS). The theme was "Everyone Is Welcome Here." Gilbert Buffalo started the day off with his drum and a song. There was a few people at the event and it was nice weather to listen to the speakers talk about their experiences in life.

One of the messages that was presented was this: "Through colonization, many Two Spirit people were assimilated or silenced through the residential school system. Two Spirit people were not accepted by settlers and were discriminated against, which contributed to discrimination in modern day society."

Guide: What was your name and who is the Elder with you?

Edith: Edith Yellowbird and Mary Rose Johnson.

Guide: What so you want to say regarding Pigeon Lake?

Edith: As they say we are the forgotten people. Our children have no playground, we need a cultural hall so bad because we get turned down here. That is all we have in Mameo is the recreation centre. We have some programs but we would like some acknowledgment. We definitely need a cultural hall. The youth have no place to go and nothing to keep them busy. We have so much potential in Mameo, all sorts of things can be done to make money. We are at four band level. There are members from all the bands here so why can't the Chiefs create some opportunity out here for us. They say that we complain when we want services but we don't.

Guide: If someone wants to respond to the request how can they get a hold of you?

Edith: Call me (please contact the communications department for the phone number).

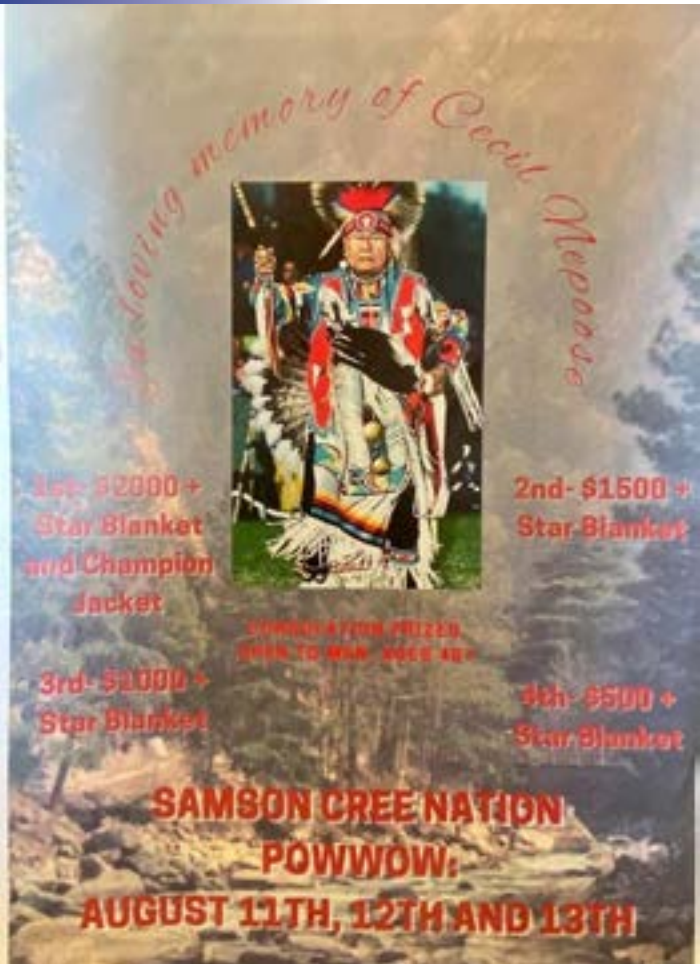

Guide: Thank you for your time.
